The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

"The Great Priory of the United Orders of the Temple and Malta," in Canada, having declared its separation from the parent body of England, as an Independent and Sovereign governing power in the Dominion, it became necessary to conform the existing Statutes, Rules and Regulations to its present position.

In issuing the amended Statutes, the Grand Council consider it advisable to introduce the following brief notice of the establishment of the Templar Order into Canada, and objects of the Templar system.

Early in the year 1851, the present Supreme Grand Master of the Sovereign Great Priory, Frater Col. W. J. B. MACLEOD MOORE, (who had recently arrived in Canada on staff military duty,) being a Past Grand Captain of the Grand Conclave of Knights Templar in England and Wales, and Past Commander of the "Melita" Encampment in the Island of Malta,—learned that an old Knights Templar Encampment, long dormant, had existed in Kingston, Canada West, and that two of the original members still resided there; on further enquiry, a Warrant was found, which had been issued by the late Ziba M. Phillips, as Grand Master of Knights Templar and Superintendent of Royal Arch Masonry for Canada West, to establish the first Encampment of Knights Templar in Canada, named the "St. John of Jerusalem," (attached to the old St. John's Masonic Lodge, of Kingston,) bearing date 12th February, 1824. This obsolete Warrant was forwarded, accompanied by a petition signed by the two surviving members and other Templars, officers of the garrison at Kingston, to the Grand Conclave of England and Wales, praying that it might be exchanged for one to be called the "Hugh de Payens."

A new Warrant was issued by the Supreme Grand Master, Colonel Kemys K. Tynte, on the 10th of March, 1854, appointing Frater (then Captain) MacLeod Moore to be the first Commander, also creating him, by "patent," of date the 7th July following, "Provincial Grand Commander for the Province of Canada,"—and sometime afterwards permission was granted to ante date the "Hugh de Payens" Warrant to that of the old one of "St. John of Jerusalem." In the same year, a Warrant was received dated 8th November, to open at Toronto the "Geoffrey de St. Aldemar" Encampment, of which Frater Samuel B. Harman was first Eminent Commander, and on the 28th July, 1855, the "William de la More, the Martyr" Encampment at Quebec was constituted under Frater T. D. Harington as Commander.

From these three Encampments, the Provincial Grand Conclave was established at Kingston, Canada West, on the 7th October, 1855,—the parent of the "Sovereign Great Priory of the Dominion."

The first candidate installed in the Premier Encampment of Canada,—the "Hugh de Payens,"—was R. E. Frater James A. Henderson, Q. C., D.C.L., of Kingston, the Deputy Grand Master of Great Priory, as also R. E. Frater S. B. Harman, of Toronto, Past Provincial Grand Commander and Chancellor, with the late esteemed Frater Thos. D. Harington. Subsequently, Sir Allan McNabb, Bart., a former distinguished Provincial Grand Master and Canadian statesman, together with the present Prime Minister, the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, K. C. B., were received in this Encampment amongst its earliest members.

The Provincial Grand Conclave remained as such until the 11th May, 1868, when the Supreme Grand Master of the Order in England, Colonel William Stuart, changed the title to that of "Grand Priory," and the Grand Commander to "Grand Prior."

In 1873, after the reorganization and change of nomenclature of the Order in England, with the formation of a "Convent General," comprising a union of the Templar bodies of England, Scotland and Ireland, having as Supreme Grand Master His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen signifying her pleasure to be Grand Patron. The Grand Priory of Canada, holding under the National Great Priory of England, petitioned, on the 27th August, 1875. Convent General to be admitted into the Convocation on the same footing as the other National Great Priorities. Authority was granted by patent under the sign manuel of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, dated 28th day of July, 1876, by which, under the name of the National Great Priory, the Canadian Templars were admitted into the federation of Templar Nationalities which composed "Convent General," each Nationality being virtually independent, and the Grand Prior of Canada was appointed "Great Prior" of the Canadian Templar nationality; he was also previously selected as one of the original recipients of the new decoration of the "Grand Cross," instituted by His Royal Highness.

"Convent General" having fallen into desuetude, the union of the National Great Priories not working satisfactorily, and from which the Scottish Templar body had at the commencement withdrawn, the National Great Priory of Canada, through their Great Prior, petitioned His Royal Highness the Supreme Grand Master to be absolved from their allegiance to himself and the "Convent General,"—to which His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales graciously assented. At the Annual Meeting of Great Priory, in Toronto, Ontario, on the 7th July, 1884, it was declared and proclaimed a Supreme and Independent Body, under the title of "The Sovereign Great Priory of Canada," having jurisdiction over the whole Dominion, and electing the Great Prior, Frater Col. W. J. B. MacLeod Moore, 33° "Supreme Grand Master," "ad-perpetuitatem vite."

OBJECT OF THE ENGLISH TEMPLAR SYSTEM.

The Templar System of Canada, known as the United Orders of the "Temple and Malta," derived from the parent body of England, proclaims the Orthodox Christian character it has always maintained, requiring from its candidates a declaration that they are Christians, believing in the doctrines of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and will submit to, and obey the usages, customs, and Statutes of the Order.

These United Chivalric Orders, or Templar Degrees, in their later Masonic revival, were introduced and attached to Freemasonry in England, about the middle of the last century, to represent the Military and Religious Orders of the Crusades, the object being to preserve the original Christian basis of Freemasonry, and promulgate (as separate degrees) its ancient tenets of the Christian faith, which at the revival and revision of the Craft, circa 1717, had been eradicated and a universal creed adopted.

The Ancient Templars, and the Guilds of Builders, or Architects,—Stone Masons,—having a common origin from the cloisters in the 11th century,—their Sacred and Secret doctrines were alike.

After the Reformation, on the suppression of the Monastic Religious houses, and dispersion of the Combined Orders of the "Temple and St. John," in Scotland, their doctrinal ritual was carefully preserved,—known only to a few. From this source was founded the English Templar System, having no direct or indirect connection with Modern Free and Accepted Masonry, and are only recognized as allied bodies to the Craft, completing what is now known as "the English Rite" of Masonry. Applicants for admission to these Templar degrees must be Royal Arch Masons, but in no other sense can they be considered as Masonic.

The history of the Ancient Templars and Knights of Malta are well known, and it is evident that their principles and usages could never have had anything to do with the Masonry of to-day, but in the modern revival of Templary, different countries took different views and conferred the degrees without any relation between them. In the United States, the Templar system is a modern fabrication of their own, based on "Freemasonry" and has no connection with the Orders of Knighthood of the middle ages.

One of their most influential members states that the founders of the present Templar system in the United States, chose to found it on Freemasonry, and they are so connected that they cannot be separated. As it is thus connected with Masonry, they recognize no other, having made it emphatically what is called a "Masonic Christian Order of Knighthood," which does not require from its candidates a belief in the "Holy Trinity;" for this reason, and the different views entertained by them of Templary, prevented a few years back, the formation of a union of all the English speaking Templars, but has not proved any obstacle in the way of the most cordial intercourse still existing.

‡WM. J. B. MacLEOD MOORE,
G. C. T., Supreme Grand Master.

Prescott, Ontario, September, 1885.

Since the Statutes of the Sovereign Great Priory were placed in the hands of the printer, an old Templar Encampment Warrant for Canada, has been discovered in the valuable collection of records and reminiscences of the early history of Canada, in the possession of the Rev. Dr. Scadding, of Toronto,—[Coll. Vol. 1, p. 54;] a copy of which is subjoined, dated 31st October, 1800. From this it would appear that it was issued at "York," now "Toronto," (although no place is mentioned,) as the signature of the Recorder, John McGill, is well authenticated, as a resident who lived and died there at an advanced age.

The circumstance of the Encampment being authorized to meet under sanction of the Lodge No. 6, at Kingston, Upper Canada, is additional proof that at that early date, Templar and other alleged Masonic bodies, were all attached to and held under authority of Craft Warrants.

The heading of the Warrant is conclusive that Modern Templary was always considered a Trinitarian Christian Society. The Title also shows its English origin, as in 1791 we find the Templar Rite in England styled "Grand Elected Knights Templar Kadosh of the Royal Exalted, Religious and Military Orders of Herodum," &c.

From the same source the St. John of Jerusalem Knights Templar Encampment attached to the old Craft Lodge of St. John at Kingston,—now revived in the "Hugh de Payens" Preceptory,—was also derived; although the allusion to its obedience to the Supreme Grand Conclave at Malta, shows how little historical accuracy or research at that time existed, there being no such body then in Malta; but it was taken for granted, and copied without investigation, from the statements of inaccurate observers.

To the City of Kingston, Ontario, must be accorded the honor of being the headquarters of the Templar body in Canada, and to the "Hugh de Payens," that of the Premier Preceptory of the Dominion.

And when any alterations shall be made in the By-laws of a Preceptory, such alterations must in like manner be submitted for approval, and no laws or alterations shall be valid until approved.

52. Every Preceptory shall have a Seal for the purpose of being affixed to documents proper to be issued by the Preceptory. The return shall further state in the case of Knights claiming to attend Great Priory as Preceptors, the Preceptories in which they shall have respectively served the office of Presiding-Preceptors, and the dates of their years of office. It shall also contain a summary of, and be accompanied by, a remittance of all fees and payments to Great Priory.

54. For the purpose of verifying the Registers, Preceptories shall, when required, make a full report of their Muster Roll to the Grand Chancellor.

32. When any Knight, after due trial, shall be found guilty of conduct unbecoming a Knight Templar, punishment shall follow which shall be proportionate to the offence.

33. When any Knight shall have been suspended by a Preceptory, he shall be notified of such action by the Registrar, who shall immediately report the same to the Grand Chancellor. When any Knight shall have been acquitted, he shall be notified of the same by the Presiding-Preceptor in open Preceptory, as well as by the Registrar, in writing.

PUNISHMENT.

34. The punishment which shall be inflicted by Chartered Preceptories for conduct unbecoming a Knight Templar, after due trial and conviction, shall be in the discretion of the Preceptory, either Indefinite Suspension, Definite Suspension, or Reprimand.

35. Suspension for any offence subjects an offender, during such suspension, to an absolute deprivation of all the rights, privileges, and benefits of the Order of the Temple to the offender and his family.

36. Suspension shall require the vote of a majority of the members present, and the penalty and the period of suspension may be voted upon together or separately; provided, that no definite suspension shall be voted for a longer time than three years, nor for a less time than three months.

37. Reprimand shall be the least Templar punishment, and shall only be inflicted after due trial and conviction, and when voted by a majority of the members present; the reprimand shall be administered in open Preceptory by the Presiding-Preceptor.

APPEALS.

38. Any Knight who has been subject to any of the foregoing proceedings of a Preceptory, or against whom charges have been presented, or his accuser, or any member of the Preceptory, has the right to appeal from any verdict or sentence therein in his case rendered or adjudged, and from any vote or decision of a Preceptory upon the subject of any charge, and such appeal may be made to the Supreme Grand Master or to the Sovereign Great Priory.

39. All appeals from any such verdict or sentence of a Preceptory shall be made in writing, and contain a statement of the case, the exceptions taken to the decision of a Preceptory appealed from, and the grounds upon which they are based. The appeal shall be filed with the Grand Chancellor thirty days prior to the next succeeding annual assembly of the Sovereign Great Priory, possible.

40. The appellant shall give the Preceptory, whose decision is appealed from, notice of his intention, within twenty-one days after receiving notice of its decision; and the Registrar of such Preceptory, under the direction of the Presiding-Preceptor, shall, at least ten days before the Annual Assembly of the Sovereign Great Priory, produce to the Grand Chancellor, and also give to the appellant, and to any Knight affected by the decision appealed from, if demanded, a copy of all the charges, papers, proceedings and evidence in the case, certified by the Registrar of the Preceptory; provided, the time herein specified shall intervene between such decisions and the Annual Assembly aforesaid; if not, then such time shall apply to the next succeeding Annual Assembly of the Sovereign Great Priory or may be disposed of by the Supreme Grand Master during recess of the Great Priory, subject to an appeal to Great Priory.

41. Whenever an appeal shall be taken from any Preceptory, the Supreme Grand Master, or the Sovereign Great Priory, may, upon investigation,—

Dismiss the appeal, approve the proceedings, or affirm the decision appealed from; or

Modify or change a decision or sentence, or inflict a penalty where the constituent Preceptory has failed to do so; or

Set aside the proceedings of the Preceptory for informality, and remand the case for further proceedings; or Give such directions as may appear reasonable and proper.

42. An appeal may also be taken to the Provincial Grand Prior of the District, for any irregularity in the trial, or any infringement of the rights of the accused, but not on questions of fact.

43. On such appeal, the Provincial Grand Prior may either dismiss the appeal or set aside the proceedings, and order a new trial.

44. In all cases of appeal, the Supreme Grand Master, or the Sovereign Great Priory, may authorize the Provincial Grand Prior to investigate the case and report, with his opinion thereon.

45. The Provincial Grand Prior may hear and determine any subject of complaint, on being specially authorized to do so by the Supreme Grand Master or the Great Priory.

46. The decision or sentence of the Provincial Grand Prior, shall, in all cases, be subject to appeal to the Supreme Grand Master or Great Priory.

47. Whenever the Great Priory, or the Supreme Grand Master, or Provincial Grand Prior, on a review of a trial or other proceedings of a Preceptory, resulting in the suspension of a Knight, shall reverse or annul the judgment of said proceedings, or shall order a new trial, the accused shall be thereby restored to all his rights, privileges, and membership. When a case is remanded for a new trial, no amendment shall be made to the original charges, unless the accused have fourteen clear days notice thereof.

48. Every Preceptory shall communicate to the Grand Chancellor, and to the Provincial Grand Prior of the District in which the Preceptory is situated, all suspensions as they may severally occur.

49. When the Presiding-Preceptor is concerned in any way with, or is interested in any charges, the Provincial Grand Prior of the District, within which the Preceptory is situate, shall, for the purpose of all preliminary proceedings, and of the trial and judgment thereon, supercede the Presiding-Preceptor, and perform all the duties and functions of the Presiding-Preceptor, as are required of and laid down for him in these regulations.

PRESIDING-PRECEPTORS AND PRECEPTORIES.

50. A Presiding-Preceptor may be tried by his Preceptory after the expiration of his official term, for any conduct unbecoming a Knight Templar, (except for official misconduct, or a violation of his official obligations). All complaints for official misconduct, shall be made to the proper authority during the official term of the offender, or within four weeks after the close of such term, otherwise he shall not be tried therefor.

51. When a controversy shall arise between Preceptories, or between a Preceptory and its Presiding-Preceptor, or charges be preferred, or any informal complaint be made, the same may be filed with the Grand Chancellor, who shall forward the same to the Supreme Grand Master; if the matter be deemed by him of a sufficiently grave character to warrant investigation, he may proceed in person, or appoint a commission of not more than seven or less than three Preceptors, with, if consistent, the Provincial Grand Prior as chairman, (provided he has not been in any way connected with the case), to investigate such charges or complaint; such commission shall have authority to summon witnesses, and shall have such other powers as may be specially delegated to them by the Supreme Grand Master; and said commission shall make such report, and give such opinion to the Supreme Grand Master, as will enable him to make a final decision.

52. When a Presiding-Preceptor, or other officer of a Preceptory, shall be deposed from office only, he shall not thereby be deprived of any of the rights or privileges of membership.

RESTORATIONS AND RE-INSTATEMENTS.

53. A suspended Knight may be restored by the Sovereign Great Priory, or by the Preceptory which suspended him.

54. A Knight suspended for an indefinite period, seeking restoration, shall petition the Preceptory by which he was suspended for his restoration. The petition shall be received at a regular Chapter of the Preceptory, and shall lie over until the next regular Chapter thereafter, before final action thereon.

55. The Registrar of the Preceptory shall notify all the members of the Preceptory of such petition, at least one week before the Chapter at which the question of restoration is to be voted upon.

56. The vote on the restoration shall be by ballot, and it shall require a majority of two-thirds of the members present for its adoption.

57. If the Preceptory has ceased to exist, the petition may be directed to the Sovereign Great Priory.

58. Any Knight suspended for non-payment of dues, seeking reinstatement, shall, on payment of the amount due at the time of his suspension, be restored to membership without presenting such petition; Provided, that if the Preceptory from which a Knight shall have been suspended for non-payment of dues has ceased to exist, a petition for re-instatement may be made to the Sovereign Great Priory.

59. Definite suspension shall expire by limitation; and any Knight so suspended shall be entitled to resume membership, and all the rights and privileges thereof, at the expiration of the time defined in his sentence, without vote or other action on the part of the Preceptory.

60. In all cases of restoration by the Sovereign Great Priory, the restored Knight resumes the status of a non-affiliated Knight.

61. In all cases of restoration by a Preceptory, the Knight is restored to all his rights and privileges, including membership in his Preceptory.

HISTORICAL.

NOTES.

The Costume and Insignia adopted by the United Orders of the Sovereign Great Priory of Canada, are strictly in accordance, and derived from the historical account given, of those used by the Ancient, Knightly, Military, and Religious Fraternities of the middle ages.

THE TEMPLARS.*

The "Templars" followed the Rule of the Benedictine Order of Monks, founded by St. Bernard, A. D. 535;—the Military Order taking its rise in A. D. 1118-19. The "White" Mantle was adopted as the Habit of the Order, to distinguish it from the "Black" Robe of the Hospitallers Knights of St. John;—and in the second Crusade, A. D. 1167, they assumed the blood-red cross, as a symbol of martyrdom.

The Mantle (with the surcoat or sleeveless tunic) was worn over armour of chain mail, and could be looped up to leave the sword-arm bare. On his head, the Templar wore a white linen caif, over this, a small, round red cap, made of cloth, and when on service in the field, an iron skull cap of chain mail.

THE HOSPITALLERS.

Knights of St. John (the Baptist) of Jerusalem, afterwards called Knights of Malta: instituted in A. D. 1092 were of the St. Augustin Rule of Monks: their Habit black, with eight pointed white cross. They afterwards, between A. D. 1278 and 1289, when engaged in military service, adopted a red tunic, with a plain (Greek) equal-limbed, white cross, worn over the centre of the breast, shoulders and back, which continued as the uniform of the Knights of Malta to a late period.

OF CROSSES.

The Cross, as the emblem of Christianity,—of Him who suffered on it,—was adopted by the Crusaders: worn on the left shoulder of their garments, and made of cloth or linen, (in imitation of Christ carrying the cross), and also on the breast; and some of the most austere and enthusiastic, imprinted the holy sign on their flesh, usually the left arm, as nearest the heart.

Ecclesiastical crosses are two in number, used as a medium of Hieratical distinction. The Pope alone is entitled to the triple-bared, or Cross of “Salem,” to denote him to be “the Sovereign Prince Supreme Judge and Sole Legislator.” “Cardinals” and “Archbishops,” are honored by the “Patriarchal” or two-barred cross, signifying “Salvation” to the “Jew and Gentile.” The “Passion,” or single barred cross, representing the one on which the Saviour suffered, is common to all ranks. These two crosses were ancient badges of the Templars, and in common use as a mark for their signatures. The true “Templar” Cross, or Cross of “The Order,” is the cross heraldically called Patee, open or spread out at the extremities, but by no means formed of four equilateral triangles, into which form it has been corrupted.

The Cross of "Malta," the device of the Order of St. John, has frequently been confounded with the Cross Patee of the Templars, although there is a great difference between them. This cross is white, of eight points, having its four arms joined in a small centre-point, and its extremities notched or indented, resembling fishes' tails, an allegorical allusion to "The Saviour,"—the fish being one of the early Christian symbols, emblematical of Christ generally. Matt. iv.: v. 19.

THE KNIGHTLY FLAGS.

The "Penmoncal" was a small triangular flag, carried by Esquires at the end of the lance.

The Knights bore a "Penmon," forked at the end, being extended into two or three points, and when powerful enough to furnish to the "State" or their Sovereign a certain number of armed men, they were accorded the title of Banneret,—little "Baron"—which gave them the right to carry a "Square" Banner at the top of the lance on which their armorial devices were depicted.

TEMPLAR BANNERS.

The Ancient Templars had two Banners:—The "Beauceant," and the "Red Cross."

The "Beauceant," in Norman French, meaning Piebald. The original armorial device of the Templars was half black and white, whatever may have been the direction of the partition lines; sometimes it was represented per pale, or divided perpendicularly in alternate narrow stripes, but most frequently per fesse, or horizontally, the upper half black, the lower white: a red passion-cross appears occasionally on the white ground only: for, to place it on the black, color upon color, would be false heraldry. This banner was supposed to denote "Death," "Innocence," and "Martyrdom;" it also had the inscription,—"Non nobis Domine; non nobis sed Nomine, tuo da glorium"—the opening sentence to the 115th Psalm. The word "Beauceant" was used by the Templars as their battle-cry:—"Au Beauceant, for the Temple!" The banners being black and white, signified: "Black, and terrible to the Infidel;" "Fair, and favorable to the Christian."

The second Standard, subsequently adopted, was the "Vexillum Belli," or "Red Cross battle flag," viz.:—A white banner charged with the Cross of the Order—Patee, and the same cross which ornamented the shields and garments of the Order.

The Holy Lamb, or "Agnus Dei," placed upon the centre of a red Greek cross, was another armorial device of the Templars, signifying the union of the qualities of gentleness and courage: the lamb being the emblem of "the Saviour," and the "Cross Banner," of victory, symbolizing the "Resurrection."

ORDER OF ST. JOHN—MALTA.

The Standard and armorial bearing of the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem (Malta), was a white, equal-limbed (Greek) cross, upon a red field.

"Banners or Standards," when made to hang perpendicularly from the poles, are called "Gonfalons," or "Ecclesiastical Banners," used in processions, and placed in cathedrals and halls. They should be tripartite or triple, cloven at the bottom.

THE SWORD.

The Sword was made in the form of a Latin cross, an emblem of the cause in which it was to be used: the blade straight, and cutting on both sides, typical of its being always employed in the defence of justice.

When the Crusaders were on the march to the Holy City, they were in the daily custom of placing their long, two-handed swords upright before them, the hilt forming a cross, and before this they performed their morning devotions, and on all military occasions of salute, kissed the hilt of their swords, in token of devotion to the cross.

THE SPURS.

The "Golden" Spurs were an indispensable adjunct of Knighthood, and signified diligence in every honorable design.

OF THE CHAPLAINS AND SERVING BRETHREN.

There was no such office in the Templar Order as "Prelate," which means a Bishop. The Chaplains were eligible for the office of Preceptor.

The "Serving Brethren" were of two classes:—The one as light-armed cavalry; the other employed as artizans, etc. Their form of reception into the Order was the same as the Knights. They wore brown or black garments, with the Cross of the Order on the breast.

GOVERNMENT OF THE ORDERS.

The Templar Order was governed by a Master, so termed according to the language employed, viz.:—"Maistre"—"Magister;" but "Magnus Magister," or "Great Master," was used at an early period. Provinces were governed by Priors, and the different Houses or "Preceptories," by "Preceptors."

In the Order of St. John, the Subordinate Bodies, under the Grand Master, were called "Priories," or "Commanderies," divided into eight langues (tongues) or countries, and ruled by "Bailies," who were Grand Crosses, and each house by a Commander.

INSTRUCTIONS.

When a Priory [or Commandery] of Malta is opened to receive a Knight of the Temple as a "Postulant," the same forms are to be observed in recording the minutes, substituting the words "Priory of Malta," for "Preceptory."

For the sake of clearness and distinction, a space should be left blank between each minute, and a marginal note made of its subject.

Each Preceptory must keep a ~~book~~ outside the Chapter-room, for members and visitors to enter their names as they come, which it is the duty of the Guard and Sub-Marshall to see done before notice is given to the Chapter of their being present.

It must be borne in mind, that no visiting Frater, unless he is a subscribing member to some regular Preceptory, has a right to claim admittance to any Chapter more than once in the twelve months' of his "non" affiliation.

Chapter Minutes are to be read on regular meetings only, and having read the minutes of the previous regular Chapter, those of the subsequent special meetings are to be read for confirmation.

"Registrars" of Preceptories should also keep a rough Minute-Book [and never, on any account, use slips of paper,] to enter the proceedings as they occur, and afterwards fairly copy them in the regular Minute-Book, to which he must attach his signature; and when they have been read and confirmed at the next regular Chapter, the Presiding-Preceptor should sign them in the right-hand corner.

It is usual on the presentment of reports from committees for the Chairman to move their reception, or their reception and adoption: if open to discussion or amendment, first move their reception and their adoption.

The Statutes declare Twenty-five Dollars ($25) the lowest fees that can be charged for the degrees of the "United Orders" of the Temple and Malta, which is to be paid previously to the reception of an "Aspirant." This sum also includes the fee for registering his name in the books of the Sovereign Great Priory, and for Great Priory Certificates as Knights Templar and Knights of Malta.

The Presiding-Preceptor is responsible for the fees collected on behalf of the Great Priory, and it is his peculiar duty to see that they are regularly forwarded with the returns.

It is the important duty of the Registrar to issue the Notice of Chapter Meetings, to every member on the Roll of the Preceptory; and he should also forward notices to the "Supreme Grand Master," to the Provincial Grand Prior, and Grand Chancellor.

The Registrar must also keep a book, in which the "By-Laws" and the "Vows" of the United Orders are copied, with sufficient blank leaves at the end for signatures of the members.

Newly-installed Knights are required to sign their "Vows" and the "By-Laws" at the time of their installation, as an evidence of their membership and willingness of obedience to the same.

"Presiding"-Preceptors, by their vows of office, are strictly enjoined to confer the ceremonies as laid down in the formula of the authorized Rituals, and are not permitted to curtail them by communication, nor to introduce innovations and additions of any kind whatever.

The term "Past" Preceptor should be discontinued, as it has no force or meaning. A Preceptor who has been duly installed into that degree, being eligible to fill the chair in any Preceptory, during the absence of the elected "Presiding"-Preceptor.

"Presiding"-Preceptors, and Registrars, in their correspondence, should adhere strictly to the phraseology and terms applied to, and adopted in the "United Orders:"—no other forms for notice of meetings nor on any other subject, should be used, but such as have been approved by the Sovereign Great Priory.

It is the duty of Provincial Grand Priors, at their visits to Preceptorics, to inspect the Books, and ascertain that the Ceremonies and Statutes are strictly carried out, reporting any deviation at once to the "Chancery," and also to mention it in their Annual Reports to "Sovereign Great Priory."
